

Kilnwick Countrywomen's Association

Programme of Speakers 2016 - 2017

Date	Event
May 4th	Visit to Tophill Low Nature Reserve
Jun 1st	Marilyn Walker – 'Mum I want to do a Gap Year'	Talk about the experience of having a child on a gap year
July 6th	Sue Hickson-Marsay – 'The Storm Tossed Lady'.	Talk by the first female Humber Pilot and her experience as a Lifeboat volunteer
August	Break for the Summer holidays!!! Hope the sun shines!	No meeting this month
Sep 7th	Beetle Drive and Social	Evening of games and chat.
Oct 5th	Angela Mason – 'The wheels off the bus'	18 people on a Double Decker bus travelling from London to Kathmandu through 14 countries. The trials, tribulations and thrills of 3 months on an exciting road in an unreliable bus.
Nov 2nd	Steve Race – Lead photographer at Yorkshire Coast Nature	The Yorkshire Coast is an incredible place to see a wide variety of wildlife across different habitats. From deep forests and woodlands to the beautiful purple moorland of the North York Moors National Park, along the rugged coastline and through the sweeping hills of the Yorkshire Wolds you will be amazed at what you can see. This talk tells the story behind the reasons for forming our company 'Yorkshire Coast Nature' and the wildlife that can be found along the Yorkshire Coast.
Dec 7th	Christmas Party Time!!!	Party in the village hall
Jan 4th	Connie's Quiz – see who are the Brainboxes of Kilnwick!!!	Always a fun evening. a team quiz on a variety of subjects. It's not 'University Challenge'!
Feb 1st	Phil Walker – 'Sunny Stories',	Amusing incidents and advice from a long time married man!!
Mar 1st	Lesley Wadforth – from Health and Harmony, Aromatherapy Hand Massage	A practical session on performing Aromatherapy hand massage